President's Report

Hello everyone

This is a really odd report to write because of course we have not had any rock 'n' roll activity. I have been watching other club's Facebook pages and shared a number of videos via our Facebook page. It is interesting to see what others are getting up to while on lockdown.

We are unable to make any decisions about Club Nights and dances etc until we hear from Jacinda on 11 May, but I can say there will be no dance, lessons or Club Nights this month and we will keep you updated on further developments.

The AGM of the rock 'n' roll association is being held next weekend, this year over Zoom rather than face-to-face in Wellington and I will be attending as our club's representative. I will include a report in next month's newsletter about any changes.

Both Junior and Senior Nationals have been cancelled this year sadly. We need to look forward to next year when we have some sort of normality whatever that looks like.

I hope you are all well and staying safe, until next month, take care.

Margaret
